Press Release

Cheung Kong Property's Singapore Mixed Development Stars of Kovan Collects Bevy of Architectural Design Awards

(28 November 2017 – Hong Kong) Developed by Cheung Kong Property Development Limited ("Cheung Kong Property"), Stars of Kovan is a unique mixed-use residential and commercial project located in a high end residential district in Singapore. This signature project has garnered a number of honours at this year's PropertyGuru Asia Property Award, including Best Private Condo Architectural Design, Best Retail Architectural Design, Best Condo Interior Design, Best Residential Interior Design (Asia), as well as other accolades such as Best Private Condo Development, Best Mixed-Use Development, and Best Retail Development.

Stars of Kovan is nestled in the exclusive Kovan neighbourhood. It comprises one-bedroom to three-bedroom condo units, five strata terrace houses, and 46 ground-level shops with designs inspired by British architecture. The development sits in the heart of a major transportation network. There are five commercial centres in the vicinity facilitating traffic draw for premium customer groups. The project has good potential for both residential and retail investments.

Over the years, Cheung Kong Property has built up an impressive list of residential and commercial properties in Singapore. They include the Marina Bay Financial Centre, One Raffles Quay, Marina Bay Residences, The Vision, Thomson Grand, and Cairnhill Crest. The values of these properties have risen steadily through the years.
