Harbour Plaza Hotels and Resorts Celebrates Second Consecutive Year in the TTG Travel Hall of Fame

Harbour Plaza Hotels & Resorts is thrilled to announce its induction into the prestigious TTG Travel Hall of Fame Award for the second consecutive year, alongside a remarkable record of winning the Best Local Hotel Chain Award for 10 consecutive years since 2010.

The TTG Travel Hall of Fame, inaugurated in 2002, recognizes the region's most exceptional travel and tourism organizations for being the unsurpassed leader in its field and achieving the coveted status of utmost excellence. The 33rd TTG Annual Travel Awards Ceremony and Gala Dinner took place on September 26 in Bangkok, Thailand.

Commitment to Sustainability

As part of the group's strategy to embrace sustainability with long-term growth, Harbour Plaza Hotels & Resorts is dedicated to incorporating environmental, social, and governance principles into the operations of its hotels and throughout the supply chain. This approach aims to create a greener hotel experience for the customers and aligns with the group's commitment to sustainable practices.

“We would like to express our sincere thanks and gratitude to our trade partners and customers for having supported us over the past years. Our trading partners and customers expect our hotels to promote sustainable practices into our operations and we are committed to achieving this goal. We will also continue to invest in technology to enhance the customer experience from booking a room to arriving at the hotel through the implementation of self-service check-in terminals.” said Ms P.C. Koh, Director, Harbour Plaza Hotels & Resorts. “As we move forward, our commitment to excellence and sustainability remains at the forefront of our operations.”
